

KE AHE LAU MAKANI

(The Comforting Gentleness of the Spreading Wind)

Festival of Hawaiian Choral Music

Sponsored by Kawaiolaonāpūkanileo
An a cappella choral ensemble whose mission is to preserve and perpetuate Hawaiian Choral Music
Artistic Director, Nola A. Nahulu

SUNDAY, MARCH 26, 2017

Rehearsal 2:00 pm, Picnic on the lawn 4:00 pm

Concert 6:00 pm

KAWAIAHA'O CHURCH

Performance is free and open to the public

Festival Fee $20

Cash or Checks made out to: Kawaiolaonāpūkanileo

All music will be provided.

Packets are available prior to the festival upon request

Pre-festival open rehearsal March 20, 5:00 - 6:30 pm

At Aupuni Place, former home of Native Books

at Ward Warehouse under the Spaghetti Factory

Open to all who enjoy singing Hawaiian choral music

Must be high school or older.

You may come as an independent singer or with your choral group.

For registration or more information

kawaiola-mail@hawaii.rr.com

Ke Ahe Lau Makani - Hawaiian Choral Festival Registration Form

Registration Deadline: Monday March 20, 2017

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

I am an independent singer: YES NO

I am a member of a choral ensemble

Name of choral ensemble: _____

Director's name: _____

Yes, put me on your mailing list: YES NO

Mail completed form to:

Kawaiolaonāpūkanileo, 1560 Thurston Ave., #804, Honolulu, HI 96822-3720